The Indian Academy of Tropical Parasitology (IATP) was launched in the year 2002 to disseminate the latest developments in the fields of protozoan, helminthic, and arthropod parasites of medical importance in the form of continuing medical education programmes and conferences and has been holding national level conferences from 2007. The Andhra Pradesh Chapter of Indian Academy of Tropical Parasitology was inaugurated on 27th July 2013 at Sri Venkateswara Institute of Medical Sciences, Tirupati by The Director and Vice-Chancellor Dr.B.Vengamma, and Dr.S.C.Parija, President of IATP, the parent body. More than 40 delegates from all parts of Andhra Pradesh participated in the event.

The establishment of the Andhra Pradesh state chapter of IATP is an important step towards fulfilling the objective of IATP to create a better awareness and understanding about the latest developments in Medical Parasitology. This will help in the capacity building and improvement of the parasitology services of the departments by bringing together likeminded professionals along with helping the postgraduate students with regular CMEs to keep them updated on recent developments and providing them a platform to present their research or case studies through annual conferences.

We take this opportunity to invite you all to the Conference of the AP &TS Chapter of IATP and workshop to mark the occasion at the holy city of Tirupati at Sri Venkateswara Institute of Medical Sciences on 11&12 November, 2022. With a view to allow the postgraduate students a platform for oral presentation, we encourage the students to send their papers primarily for oral presentation. We shall be trying to accommodate as many papers as possible for this purpose.

We are looking forward to your support and encouragement in this and request your valuable presence during the conference.

Thanking you
